

Discuss about welding and its importance and applications in nuclear power plants. Your report should cover the basics of welding, its effects on materials, considerations to think about, possible mitigations, and its special case for nuclear power plants.

Deliverables

Your report should be a minimum of 5 pages including figures and diagrams. Submit your work in a zip file containing all relevant files and email it to me at mohsin@utm.my